WORK OF JUDGE LYNCH. ROBBERS OF DEAD PUNISHED.

Hungarian Ghouls Suffer for Their Crimes at the Hands of an Indignant People.

JOHNSTOWN, June 3 -At 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning an old railroader who toorney, Clay county, Texas, says: "Have had walked from Sang Hollow stepped up used Electric Bitters with most happy reto a number of men who were congregated | suits. My brother, also, was very low with on the platform of the station at Curran- malarial fever and faundice, but was cured ville and said: "Gentlemen, had I a shot by timely use of this medicine. Am satisgun with me half an hour ago I would now be a murderer, yet with no fear of ever having to suffer for my crime. Two miles below here I watched three men going below here I watched three men going below here i watched three men going along the bank stealing jewels from the bodies of dead wives and daughters of men who had been robbed of all they held dear on earth."

He had no scoper inished the last sentence of the been for Electric Bitters.

This great remedy will ward off, as well as cure all malarial diseases, and for all kidney, Liver, and Stomach Disorders stands unequaled. Price 50c. and $1, at R. S. Hale & Co.'s. below here i watched three men going

He had no sooner finished the last senin twenty minutes they had overtaken two of their victims, who were then in the act of cutting pieces from the ears and fingers from the hands of two of the dead women. With a revolver leveled at the scoundreis, the leader of the posses shouted: "Throw up your hands or I'll blow your heads off." With blanched faces and trembling forms they obeyed the order and begged for mercy. They were then searched, and as their pockets were emptied of their ghastly finds, the indignablow your heads off." With blanched faces and trembling forms they obeyed the order and begged for mercy. They were then searched, and as their pockets were emptied of their ghastly finds, the indignation of the crowd was intensified, and when the bloody finger of an infant, encircled with two tiny gold rings was found among the plunder in the leader's pocket, the cry weat up, "Lynch them," Without a moment's delay ropes were thrown about their necks and they were dangling from limbs of trees in the branches of which an hour before were entangled the remains of their plundered victums.

They are a positive cure for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Flatulency and Constipation. We guarantee them. 25 and 50 cents. For sale by R. S. Hale & Co.

Just as the shadows began to fall upon the earth Saturday evening thirteen Hungarians were noticed steathhiy picking their way along the banks of the Conemangh towards Sang Hoilow. Suspicious of their purpose, several farmers armed themselves and started in pursuit. Soon their most horrible fears were realized—the Hungarians were out for plunder.

Lying opon the shore they came upon the dead and mangled body of a woman. Upon her person were a number of trinkets, jewelry and two diamond rings. In ets, jewelry and two diamond rings. In their eagerness to secure the plunder the Hungarians got into a squable, during which one of their number severed the fin-ger upon which were the rings and started to run with his fearful prize. The revolting nature of the deed so wrought up the pur suing farmers, who by this time were close at hand, that they gave immediate chase. Some of the Hungarians showed fight, but being outnumbered were compelled to flee for their lives. Nine of the brutes escaped, but four were driven into the surging river and to their death. The human monster, whose atrocities have been described, was

One of the most curious occurrences of the whole disaster was how Walters got to the whole disaster was how Walters got to the hall. He has his office on the second floor. His home is at 135 Walnut street. He says he was in the house with his family when the waters struck it. All were carried away. The Walters family drifted on a roof in another direction. He passed down several streets and alleys until he came to the hall. His dwelling struck that edifice and he was thrown into his own office. About two hundred persons had taken refuge in the hall and were in the second, third and fourth stories. The men held a meeting and drew up some rules, which all were bound to respect. Walters which all were bound to respect. Walters was chosen present. Rev. Beal was put in charge of the second floor, A. M. Hartof the third floor, and Dr. Matthews of the fourth floor. No light was allowed and the pierced the gloomy darkness, and the cries of children was mingled with the sup-pressed sobs of the women. Not one slept during all the dark night. Many knelt for and administered to their wants. No one died during the night, but women and children surrendered up their lives on the succeeding day as the result of terror and fatigue. Miss Rose Young, one of the young ladies in the hall, was frightfully cut and bruised. The vocal organs are strengthened by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Clergy-
